Welcome! In this world history class, all students will be encouraged to develop as internationally-minded learners. This means that students will consider the world around them, both locally and globally. While exploring the history of great civilizations of the medieval and early modern periods, students will be encouraged to make practical connections between history long ago and the real world today.

Students should bring a device to class fully charged everyday unless told not to do so. Many assignments will be online and accessed through our learning management system, Haiku.

Please check Haiku for assignments. Please check Q Student Connect or Q Parent Connect for grades.

What do I do if I'm absent?

If you are absent, you must make up all missed work or you will receive a zero "0" for the work. It is YOUR responsibility to find out what you missed and make it up!

To get the work, you should:

1. Check Haiku for the day you were out and see what you missed. Download worksheets and/or presentations, complete discussion boards, etc.
2. Ask another student what you missed.
3. If you need more information, ask me.

Absent work, late work, and make-up tests:

Absent work

- ⇒ You have one week to make up absent work.
- ⇒ Make-up tests and quizzes must be taken the day you return (exceptions will be made for several-day absences).

Late work

- ⇒ Late assignments will receive a 50% deduction if turned in within one week.
- ⇒ Late long-term projects will receive a 10% deduction for each day late
